Professional Experience

Avani Services

Owns and leads a small business that provides custom education, training, and professional support services to both public and private sector clients.

Bringing expertise in training/solutions development and project management, Natasha Cox owns and leads Avani Services. Avani is a distinguished woman-owned small business with a 25-year history of excellence in custom training and development, human capital management, information technology, digital transformation, and professional support services. Natasha's leadership extends across the domains of project and team management, including strategy and operations. She brings a consistent record of leading as a prime on complex projects for federal agencies such as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Her approach integrates strategic oversight with an emphasis on empowering her teams, ensuring that projects not only meet but exceed stakeholder expectations. Avani's commitment to excellence and innovation has been recognized through numerous industry awards.

FEMA Contracts

Curriculum Development and Process Optimization

Under Natasha's strategic leadership, Avani enhanced the capabilities of Public Assistance field staff for FEMA. The Avani team focused on leadership development, experiential learning, and the creation of organizational tools to improve efficiency. This project demonstrates proficiency in managing high-impact projects and the ability to lead a team in delivering customized solutions.

Principles of Building Construction eLearning Course

Avani converted traditional instructor-led courses into an award-winning online course compliant with FEMA's rigorous standards. This project underscores Avani's organizational capability to navigate complex projects and earned a Silver Omni Award for Educational Media.

Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity (ID/IQ) Contract

Avani successfully managed multiple Task Orders for NETC, ensuring the effective use of instructional design methodologies across 50+ courses, encompassing emergency management and specialized training. This extensive project portfolio highlights an exceptional capability in orchestrating large-scale, diverse initiatives that cater to a wide range of educational needs.
